THE GIRL OF THE CEMETERY

I was with my friends having a walk next to the cemetery. We were near the door and we were looking into the cemetery.

Suddenly, a strange girl appeared. She was sitting on a tomb. She was wearing a mourning dress with stains of blood and she had a knife hidden under it. After that we came to my house and then we found a story of a girl who was sitting in her mother's tomb. She killed the men who battered their wives because her father killed her mother when they were in their honeymoon.

The next time we visited the cemetery the girl wasn't there! It was scary!
